DETAILED ACTION

1. The Applicants' response to the office action filed on June 10, 2008 has been considered and acknowledged.

Status of the application and Response to arguments

2. Currently claims 46-90, 97-98 are pending. Claims 91-96 were cancelled. New claims 97-98 were added. Applicants' arguments and the amendment have been fully considered and deemed persuasive. All the previous rejections that are not reiterated herein are withdrawn in view of the amendment and persuasive arguments.

Nonstatutory Double Patenting

3. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

A. Claims 46-90, 97-98 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-36 of copending Application No. 11/491,376 (US 2007/0218467A). An obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but an examined application claim not is patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed.Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed.Cir. 1985).

Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claim 46, 65, and 84 are generic to all that is recited in claims 1, 29, and 36 of the co-pending application. That is, the claims 1, 29, and 36 of the co-pending application fall entirely within the scope of claims 46, 65, 84 or in other words, claims 46, 65, and 84 are anticipated by the claims 1, 29 and 36 of the co-pending application. Specifically the method of mitochondrial DNA analysis and characterizing heteroplasmy of two or more segments of mitochondrial DNA using two primer pairs are within the scope of the claims in the co-pending application. Further the dependent claims 47-64, 66-83, 85-90, 97-98 are within the scope of the claims 2-28, 30-35 of the co-pending application. Thus the instant claims encompass the claims in the co-pending application and are related as genus and species, and are coextensive in scope.

The courts have stated that a genus is obvious in view of the teachings of a species. see Slayter, 276 F.2d 408, 411, 125 USPQ 345, 347 (CCPA 1960); and In re Gosteli, 872 F.2d 1008, 10 USPQ2d 1614 (Fed.Cir. 1989).

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.
